Community festival, event listings available at no cost on Kaua'i Festivals website

LĪHU'E – The Office of Economic Development announces that no-cost listings for community events and festivals are available on its website, kauaifestivals.com.

If you have an event to add to the Kaua'i Festivals calendar, you may click the "Submit an Event" tab at the top of the Kaua'i Festivals home page. First-time users must click "Request a Contributor Account" before submitting a listing.

Kaua'i Festivals is an online resource that features the island's festivals and events and celebrates Kaua'i's art, culture, and community.

This resource is made possible by a partnership between the Kaua'i Visitors Bureau, the County of Kaua'i, and the Hawai'i Tourism Authority.

For more information, contact Michelle Rego at mrego@kauai.gov or 808-241-4192. To learn about the terms of access and use of the website, visit kauaifestivals.com/terms/.
